United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of the Chief of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), the Team Leader acts as one of three principal managers in the office. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism that provides support for start-up police components in new UN peace operations, as well as assists in operations on a continual basis. The Team Leader manages and contributes to a wide portfolio of law enforcement operational issues. S/he supervises personnel, including other advisers and specialists, on matters concerning police reform, community policing, transnational organized crime, public order, peacekeeping, crime investigation and training. Specific duties include: It is expected that the incumbent works and leads SPC police teams as well as police component in a field mission from a period varying from one week up to three months and beyond. The Team Leader will also be from time to time involved in tactical and strategic assessment missions in new and current peace operations.

When at the SPC Headquarters, the incumbent, in co-operation with other Team Leaders and the Special Assistant to the Chief of the SPC, sets and monitors field work plans for his/her team in order to prepare SPC personnel for field assignments. S/he interacts closely with relevant Heads of Section in the Police Section, DPKO (in conceptualizing and planning field assignments for SPC and identifying specific needs and challenges of police components in UN peace operations. When deployed to the field), the incumbent manages a team to ensure the implementation of SPC's specific terms of reference for its assignments, during the start-up phase of police components in new UN peace operations and while assisting police components in existing operations. Under the direction of the Chief/SPC, the incumbent works to infuse the relevant Security Council resolutions, policies and directives of DPKO as well as the applicable Rules of Reference in all aspects of SPC's work and identifies and ensures the implementation of best police practices into the day-to-day activities of his/her team. From the perspective of police operational issues, the incumbent provides advice, assistance and expertise on building national law enforcement institutions and capacity, including, among others, police patrols, investigations, searches and seizures, community policing, crowd control management, and emergency services. It is also expected from the incumbent to manage a team while at the HQ up to a large team of staff including non-SPC staff members who are deployed in the field.
